

The Speaking Word in Waldorf Education

artistic tools and pedagogical considerations to guide daily speech activities: what, why, how

with Helen Lubin

Saturday, March 16, 2018 | 9:30-4:30 | Red Barn Studio

Chestnut Ridge, NY | $65-$90 (sliding scale)

- exploring the evolving relationship between the spoken word and movement throughout the school years
- furthering this in the classroom, from the participatory movement of the limbs of the younger child, to the inner movement of language in pictures, to the dynamic movement of thinking activity in the older student
- how does this interface with the changing relationship between outer and inner, world and self, in the journey through the school years?

For further age-specific support, individual sessions will be available following the workshop on Saturday as well as on Sunday. All are welcome.

Helen Lubin has been a speech artist/educator in Waldorf classrooms, teacher education and therapeutic practice for 33 years. Created Speech Arts in Waldorf Schools in North America (now in 25th year), for teachers, classes, individual students, staff and parents.

Questions and pre-registration between now and March 10:
helenlubin@gmail.com | 916-966-5749

Further information: steinerspeecharts.org
Housing: www.threefold.org/housing